TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. Reservations & Payment

1.1 Reservations can be made by contacting PD Safaris, hereinafter referred to as the "Company", or through the booking agent.

1.2 Safaris are booked and confirmed only upon receipt of a deposit as follows:

(I) When you book a safari, a deposit of fifty percent (50%) of the daily rate of your safari and full payment of government fees is required or a deposit of fifty percent (50%) of the package.

(II) There shall be no binding contract until the deposit is paid. When the Company acknowledges receipt in writing of the deposit to you, it shall be deemed to constitute acceptance and confirmation of the reservation.

1.3 The balance of your safari cost is due no later than ninety (90) days before the commencement of your safari. If the balance has not been received by that date, the Company shall be entitled to treat your reservation as cancelled, and consequently to forfeit such part of the deposit as determined solely by the Company.

1.4 This Paragraph is applicable to hunting safaris only: The price quoted to you for trophy fees is subject to change based on

(I) an increase of the trophy fee charged by the government of the country where your safari will take place and/or

(II) an increase or decrease in the total trophy fees as a result of a change in the species and/or number of trophies taken.

In the event of an increase due to 1.4(I), you agree to make immediate payment to the Company upon their notification to you that the increase has occurred. In the event of an increase pursuant to 1.4(II), you agree to make payment to the Company, when requested, at the end of your safari. In the event of a decrease pursuant to 1.4(II), the Company will make the appropriate refund to you within thirty (30) days of the completion of your safari.

(III) Note that in all cases, the published trophy fees of the year the safari is taken shall apply.

2. Cancellations & Refunds

2.1 Any cancellation of a reservation must be in writing and shall only be effective upon its acknowledged receipt by the Company. Cancellation fees shall apply in the following circumstances:

(I) When a cancellation is effective more than ninety (90) days prior to the start of your safari, fifty percent (50%) of your safari costs will be charged to your account as cancellation fees. If additional monies have been paid toward your safari, these monies in excess of the cancellation fees will be refunded to you.

(II) When a cancellation is effective less than ninety (90) days prior to the start of your safari, the deposit costs of your safari will be charged to your account as cancellation fees.

2.2 If you are a "no show", the Company shall be entitled to treat your reservation as cancelled without having given the Company any notice, and the provisions of Paragraph 2.1(II) shall apply.

2.3 Any request to vary your reservation must be in writing and the Company agrees to vary your reservation as requested, it reserves the right to charge an administration fee, in addition to all other increases in rates and charges associated with the change, which is payable no later than seven (7) days after such notification. If any time prior to the departure or during a safari a variation occurs in the number of hunters or participants, the safari invoice will be revised to reflect these variations and will be subject to Paragraph 2.1 when applicable.

2.4 No refunds are given for: (1) lost travel or substitution of facilities, areas, hunters, camps and dates, (2) itineraries amended after departure, (3) circumstances arising beyond the Company's control, necessitating alternative arrangements be made to ensure the safety and/or further participation and enjoyment of your safari, (4) if you do not appear for any service, accommodations, sightseeing or trip segment without notifying the Company, (5) if you leave your safari after it has begun, miss any scheduled sightseeing, activities or accommodations, (6) failure to collect any specie that you may have sought to collect while on safari, or (7) rescheduling the area in which you hunt in order to make quota available for your safari.

3. Risks

3.1 The Company draws your attention to the fact that there are certain inherent risks involved in participating in the type of trips sold by the Company. You agree that you participate in such trips at your own risk.

3.2 You acknowledge and agree that it is your responsibility to take all appropriate medical advice prior to departure as to whether you are fit enough to undertake the trip that you have booked.

3.3 By accepting terms and conditions, you acknowledge and agree that adventure travel, whether in civilized or remote areas, by auto, plane, boat, horseback, other conveyance, or on foot, involves inherent dangerous risks of injury, illness, death or loss and damage of property, which may be caused by negligence of others, forces of nature, and other causes known or unknown. You recognize that such risks may be present at any time before, during, and after the trip.

4. Force Majeure

4.1 "Force Majeure" means, in relation to the Company, any circumstances beyond the reasonable control of the Company; including, but without limitation, acts of God, flood, explosion, tempest, fire or accident, war or threat of war, sabotage, insurrection, civil disturbance or unrest, or requisition, sickness, quarantine, government intervention or hindrance of any kind, weather conditions or other untoward occurrences, government concessions for safaris once made available to the Company are no longer made available to the Company.

4.2 If the Company is affected by Force Majeure, it shall notify you in a timely fashion of the nature and extent of the Force Majeure.

4.3 The Company shall not be deemed to be in breach of these terms and conditions or otherwise be liable to you, because of delay in performance, or by non-performance of any of its obligations hereunder to the extent that any such delay or non-performance is due to any Force Majeure.

5. Insurance

The Company strongly recommends that you obtain the following types of insurance, which are commercially available:

- Major Medical
- Accidental death and disability
- Trip cancellation
- Loss of personal effects
- Emergency medical evacuation

By accepting these terms and conditions, you acknowledge that the Company does not typically provide these types of insurance to you or arrange them for your benefit, that the Company has no obligation to provide these of insurance for you, that the costs of these insurances are not included in your safari costs payable to the Company unless expressly so stated on your invoice, and that it is your responsibility to provide for these coverage's if you want to have them.

6. Surcharges and Gratuities

6.1 Although the Company hopes that it will not need to levy surcharges, it reserves the right to do so if this becomes necessary. The Company will endeavor to notify you in writing as soon as it is aware of any likely surcharge, and you must pay the amount of such surcharge no later than ten (10) days after written notification has been received, depending on the circumstances. Any refund made by the Company shall be in its own sole and absolute discretion. For the purposes of this provision, surcharges may include, but are not limited to, additional costs incurred by Suppliers as a result of new taxes, government charges, trophy fees, and the like.

6.2 Gratuities for professional hunters, professional guides and camp staff in Tanzania are always welcomed and appreciated, and most instances serve as an important supplemental income source.

7. Conditions of Booking

You agree that you and any minors or non-hunting observers that are traveling with you shall comply at all times with the instructions of the Company representatives of the Suppliers. No client shall be accepted or permitted to continue on a safari while their status of mental or physical condition is, in the opinion of any representatives of the Company, the Outfitter or the professional hunter assigned to your safari, such as to render them incapable of caring for themselves or make themselves objectionable to other clients or become a hazard to themselves or other clients. The Company will not be responsible for expenses by such persons precluded from completing a safari for this reason. Payment made by travellers' cheques and/or cheques, an additional 5% can be levied to cover bank charges.

8. Travel Documents & Vaccinations

It is your responsibility to ensure that passports, visas, travel permits, health certificates, inoculations, or other documentation required for the trip are obtained and are in order. It is your responsibility to pay any additional costs incurred either by yourself or by the Company on your behalf, because of any failure by you to comply with such requirements.

9. Carriage by Land, Air & Sea

Carriage by land, air and sea is subject to the terms and conditions of the carrier with whom you travel and to international conventions, some of which may limit liability. Land, air and sea travel are also subject to operational decisions of carriers and air and sea ports which may result in cancellations, delays or diversions, over which the Company accepts no liability whatsoever.

10. Baggage

Temporary or permanent damage or loss of baggage is the responsibility of you or the carrier.

11. Special Requests

You must advise the Company in writing of any special requests, e.g. diet or facility, you may have when you submit your reservation to the Company. The Company will attempt to meet any such requests whenever possible. Certain special requests may incur procurement costs, which will be charged to your account. Any such charges will be communicated to you at the earliest opportunity.

12. Photography & Filming

The Company reserves the right without further notice to make use of any photography, film or video taken of you, minors or non-hunting observers traveling with you, or of any other aspects of your safari by the Outfitter or Suppliers for general purposes without payment to you and without your permission. If you make photographs or videos of your own available to the Company, the Company reserves the right to make use of such photos. By providing such photographs to the Company, you grant the Company a perpetual, fully paid, non-exclusive, irrevocable license to use such photographs or videos in the Company Marketing Materials or otherwise.

13. Disputes

If you have any cause for complaint while traveling or hunting, you must immediately bring it to the attention of the Outfitter, and/or the professional hunter assigned to your safari, whichever is practical at the time of the incident that gives rise to the complaint. Either or both of these parties will attempt to resolve the situation, contacting the Company when necessary to do so.
